PATRICK MINA APPOINTED HEAD OF INTERNATIONAL CLIENT AND MARKET SERVICES

LONDON, 25 JULY 2005 – As part of its continual drive for high level of service to clients, Marsh, the world's leading risk and insurance services firm, announced today that Patrick Mina, CEO of Client and Market Services (CMS) in the UK has been appointed to the newly created role of Head of International Client and Market Services.

The position will report to Bruce Carnegie-Brown, President and Chief Executive Officer of Marsh's Europe/Middle East Operations, Alex Moczarski, worldwide Head of International Specialty Operations, and Jerome (Jerry) Bailey, worldwide CFO Marsh Inc.

Patrick's role will be to identify and deliver a best practice servicing model for Marsh across the Europe/Middle East (EME) and the International Speciality Operations (ISO) regions. Patrick will also lead our servicing location strategy to accelerate service and efficiency improvements. He will retain direct responsibility for CMS in the UK.

Commenting on the promotion, Bruce Carnegie-Brown, President and Chief Executive Officer of Marsh's Europe/Middle East Operations said:

“Since joining Marsh, Patrick has been instrumental in driving Marsh's focus on service and efficiency improvement while dramatically improving levels of service to clients. I am confident that he will be just as successful in this role leading our client servicing strategy across the EME and ISO regions.”
